

Film & Television Minor Application Instructions (revised 7/13/17)

The Film & Television minor is available for Fall and Spring entry to current UA students only. Late applications will not be reviewed.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

(The application deadline for Fall 2017 is past.)

Spring 2018 application deadline: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2017, 4:00PM

APPLICATION PROCESS

STEP ONE - ELIGIBILITY

- You must be a current UA student (registered for at least one class at UA) during the semester you are applying to the minor.
- You must have a minimum UA cumulative GPA of 2.5 to be eligible to apply to the minor. (Students who have no GPA yet because they are in their first semester at UA are also eligible to apply.)

STEP TWO - ATTEND A MINOR INFORMATION SESSION

After you are registered for Fall 2017 classes at UA, email Ms. Marissa Owens at marissaowens@email.arizona.edu to sign up for one of the required minor information sessions below. (In your email, please include your name, UA student ID, UA email address, phone number, and current UA GPA.)

- Friday August 25, 2017, 9:10-9:45am
- Friday September 1, 2017, 12:10-12:45pm
- Friday September 8, 2017, 10:10-10:45am
- Friday September 15, 2017, 1:10-1:45pm

Minor information sessions will be held in the Film & Television office in Marshall 220 (845 N. Park Ave.). DON'T MISS CLASS to attend an information session -- excuse notes will not be given. DON'T BE LATE to the information session -- you will not be allowed to enter after the session begins. Students who are not eligible to apply to the minor (due to low GPA) may still attend an information session (though they may not submit an application).

STEP THREE - SUBMIT APPLICATION

The application requirements for the minor (including statement of intent, scene analysis essay, and transcripts) will be detailed at the information sessions. All materials must be submitted and received in the Film & Television office by the posted deadline.

ASSESSMENT OF APPLICATION MATERIALS

Applications will be reviewed and admission decisions made within two weeks of the application deadline. Students will be informed of their admission status through UA email once all decisions have been made. Students denied to the Film & TV minor may reapply in a future semester (if eligibility requirements are still met).

If you have any questions about the application process or requirements, you may contact Ms. Marissa Owens by phone at (520) 621-9303, or by email at marissaowens@email.arizona.edu.
